Our Story

Natasha and Alex Contreras were both born in Richmond, VA. They met in Falling Creek Middle School, dated in High School and got married after College. Natasha's father, Gus Hatzagiannidis, started his proprietorship in 1976, with Mr. Submarine a staple in Richmond for over 40 years. Natasha grew up working next to her father in the family business working and learning a lot from her father Gus.

Alex's father, the late Victor Contreras started his proprietorship in 1988 with Sal's Pizza & Italian Restaurant (near Chippenham Tnpk.). Within a year they went off to establish a location in Petersburg, Va (Crater Rd. & S. Sycamore St.), where he stayed and made it a staple for 33 years.

Alex Contreras grew up alongside his father through the years going to work, and learning much about running a family business.

Natasha went to college for accounting and Alex for Finance and both ended up staying with the family business. They were married in 2011, and moved to Moseley in 2013. Once the Publix/Cosby Village Shopping Center was coming on the scene, both were in agreement to open up "Mr. Submarine and Sal's Pizza" together as one location. Both had always been kind of stubborn and did not want to tamper with the names hence the reason for the two legacy names under one.
